Red Light Christmas Cookie Extravaganza

Together with a team of volunteers, we handed out about 1,000 bags of homemade cookies with a gospel message in both Thai and English.

In handing out the cookies, I met a lady who asked me to take her to church within just a couple minutes of introducing myself! Amazing! We exchanged contact information and I look forward to connecting with her soon!

I also met a Muslim Australian who began to weep as he shared mournfully about how his mistakes have cost him his marriage, his business, everything. His tears were those of shame and hopelessness. My heart went out to him as I explained that Jesus took our shame and paid the penalty for our sins so that we no longer have to have those things, and that there is Hope in Him. It was such an honor to hear his story and to pray for him. It's always such a humbling and priveleged experience to watch the presence and power of God come and unlock people's hearts as their tears begin to flow and their stories come tumbling out. This is the sort of vulnerability that Jesus can work with. May this man find Hope, forgiveness, wholeness and freedom through Jesus very soon!

The feedback from other volunteers handing out cookies was phenomenal. They shared, some with tears in their eyes, how excited people were to receive a gift, waving their goody bags, smiling broadly and responding with a heartfelt, "Merry Christmas!"

Proverbs 18:16 New Living Translation (NLT)

¹⁶Giving a gift can open doors;

it gives access to important people!

Please pray with us for these seeds of the Gospel to take root and to bring freedom and transformation in the lives of the men, women and children whom we encountered in handing out the cookies.

Thanks so very much to each of you who partner with us in stopping for the ones He puts before us here in Asia. You are loved and appreciated! We are together, as family, about the Father's business.
